C. I. Funding Transportation Improvements

California Department of Transportation

The California Department of Transportation is currently accepting applications for grant money for projects that “promote context sensitive planning and improve mobility and quality of life for diverse communities.” Examples of eligible projects include:

- Safety improvements for pedestrians, transit users and bicyclists
- Community revitalization and economic development with a transportation component
- Promoting advance transportation technology and energy efficiency in communities

The solutions recommended by the MPEDS meet all of these criteria. The grants are up to $300,000, with a required local match of 10%. Further information regarding this grant money can be obtained by contacting Norman Dong in the Office of Policy Analysis & Research, Division of Transportation Planning at (916) 651-6889 or by email at: norman\_dong@dot.ca.gov.

Transportation Equity Act for the 21st Century

Another non-traditional source of funding these improvements is under the Transportation Equity Act for the 21st Century (TEA-21). TEA-21 provides for several types of funding for various projects. Based on the above proposed solutions, applicable sources of funding available under TEA-21 include the Safe Routes to School Program and the Bicycle Transportation Account.

Safe Routes to School Program

Funds six general types of projects, including sidewalk improvements, traffic calming and speed reduction measures, pedestrian/bicycle crossing improvements, on and off-street bicycle/pedestrian facilities, and traffic diversion improvements. Funds from the Bicycle Transportation Account can be used for creation of a bike path, bike lane or bike route, among other things. Both of these programs are administered through Caltrans, and applications are available from, and due to, Caltrans for each. Applications for the next round of funding for the Safe Routes to School Program are due May 31, 2002 and applications for the next round of funding from the Bicycle Transportation Account are due June 1, 2002. Information regarding both of these programs can be found at <http://www.dot.ca.gov/hq/LocalPrograms/>.
